

Over 70 Officers Hurt in Scuffles With G20 Protesters in Hamburg - Police

Scores of police officers have been injured in clashes with protesters who rallied in the center of the northern German city of Hamburg on the eve of the G20 summit, police said Thursday.

MOSCOW (Sputnik) — Initial reports by Police Hamburg put the number of casualties among officers at 15. Three of them were taken to hospitals, according to police Twitter feed.

But an updated report said the tally has increased by “further 59 lightly-injured police personnel.” “We don’t have any information about injured demonstrators or lawbreakers yet,” police said.

Source: <https://sputniknews.com/europe/201707071055309858-police-officers-hurt-g20/>

[Disclaimer]