

Blockade: No Power or Water for Gaza Until All Hostages Released Says Israel

Gaza should not expect to see the water or electricity turned back on while it still holds hostages captured during the massive and deadly terror attack on Israel on Saturday, that country's government has warned.

Humanitarian aid will be forthcoming to Gaza when it shows concern for human welfare itself Israel's energy minister Israel Katz said on Thursday when he wrote "Humanitarian aid to Gaza?... Humanitarian for humanitarian". Addressing the tens of dozens of abductees believed held by the terrorist group Hamas, the politician said Israel would continue the state of siege until it had its people home.

Meaning this meant a continued blockade on supplies to Hamas-ruled Gaza, Katz outlined: "No electrical switch will be turned on, no water hydrant will be opened and no fuel truck will enter until the Israeli abductees are returned home."
