

Burisma Exec Has 17 Items in His ‘Insurance Policy’ Against Joe, Hunter Biden: Senator Grassley

Sen. Chuck Grassley of Iowa claimed on Monday that a confidential source who allegedly bribed Hunter Biden and then-Vice President Joe Biden years ago has audio proof of dealings with them.

Grassley said from the Senate floor the individual who paid the duo kept recordings of them — 17 in total — as an “insurance policy” in case they were needed in the future.

The revelations by the senator come from an FBI document the bureau tried to withhold from House Republicans as they investigate alleged Biden family corruption.

Grassley said the FD-1023 form showed a confidential whistleblower claimed that he recorded 15 conversations regarding business with Hunter Biden.

Meanwhile, per Grassley, the individual said he recorded two private conversations with Joe Biden himself.
