

Court Filing Argues DA Fani Willis Could Face RICO Charges for Alleged ‘Improper Romance’ with Georgia Prosecutor In Trump Case

A motion filed in state court in Atlanta claims Fulton County District Attorney Fani Willis appointed a romantic partner to prosecute former President Donald Trump in the Georgia election interference case.

The salacious court petition claims Willis and special prosecutor Nathan Wade “have been engaged in an improper, clandestine personal relationship during the pendency of this case, which has resulted in the special prosecutor, and, in turn, the district attorney, profiting significantly from this prosecution at the expense of the taxpayers.”

The legal challenge, filed on Monday, threw a major curveball in the case against Trump, who faces several criminal counts under Georgia’s Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations law for his efforts to overturn the state’s 2020 election result.

Continue reading HERE

Source:

<https://atlantablackstar.com/2024/01/10/court-filing-argues-da-fani-willis-could-face-rico-charges/>

[Disclaimer]