Dagestan: Mob storms Russian airport in search of Jews

Israel has urged Russia to protect "all its citizens and all Jews" after a large mob shouting antisemitic slogans stormed a Dagestan airport.

Video footage on social media showed an angry crowd running through the airport in Makhachkala seeking people arriving on a flight from Tel Aviv.

Some of the crowd ran on to the runway and surrounded aircraft there.

Russia's aviation agency Rosaviatsia said security forces later brought the situation under control.

The airport was closed on Sunday night. On Monday, Rosaviatsia said the airport had reopened. The agency added that flights from Israel to the North Caucasus would be "temporarily redirected to other cities".

Sixty alleged mob participants have been arrested, Russian news agencies say, citing the local interior ministry.

Continue reading HERE

Source: https://www.bbc.com/news/world-europe-67258332

[Disclaimer]