

Marjorie Taylor Greene introduces impeachment articles against Biden

WASHINGTON — Rep. Marjorie Taylor Greene unveiled articles of impeachment against President Biden on Thursday over his handling — or lack thereof — of the crisis at the southern border.

“It is with the highest amount of solemn Monday that I announced my intention to introduce Articles of Impeachment today on the head of this ‘America-last’ executive branch that has been working since Jan. 20, 2021, to systematically destroy this country,” Taylor Greene (R-Ga.) told reporters at the Capitol.

The firebrand congresswoman added the articles she introduced against Biden represent just the “first round” of purported offenses, and said she hopes House Republicans can find additional charges to bring against the president.
