

President Maduro calls for peace and stability in Venezuela

Caracas, Mar 1 (Prensa Latina) Venezuelan President Nicolas Maduro on Sunday called for continuity of what he considers a social, political and economic offensive to guarantee peace and stability for the people.

‘March has arrived! A month laden with a deep Chavist sentiment that encourages us to continue the social, political and economic offensive, guaranteeing our beloved people’s peace, stability and prosperity. Always loyal to the eternal legacy of Commander Chavez!, Maduro wrote on his Twitter account.

The president has repeatedly called for dialogue, coexistence and productive work to consolidate the Bolivarian Revolution.

Maduro also urged the National Constituent Assembly, his cabinet and the people to focus their efforts on the strategic lines of action that will allow fostering the country's socioeconomic development.

He also called for national unity to establish a culture of work to overcome the difficulties affecting the country, due to the economic warfare, one of the interfering maneuvers promoted by the opposition. jg/oda/lrc

Source:

<https://www.plenglish.com/index.php?o=rn&id=52816&SEO=president-maduro-calls-for-peace-and-stability-in-venezuela>

[Disclaimer]