

Tons of gold missing in Venezuela

Eight tons of gold are missing from the Central Bank in Caracas, apparently taken out on President Maduro's orders. It's not the first case, gold is missing: Last year, 23 tons were shipped to Turkey. It is unclear whether supplies were bought for the country or whether it was set aside for personal use.

Source: <https://www.dw.com/en/tons-of-gold-missing-in-venezuela/av-47742568>

[Disclaimer]